

WILDHORSE RANCH RESCUE

Saving horses one at a time

ROCKIN 7B RANCH

APRIL 8, 9, & 10, 2005

8:00 AM—5:00 PM

Come join Wildhorse Ranch Rescue at our booths at the Cave Creek Fiesta Days. WHR has joined together with Norby Gallery in Cave Creek for an incredible and unusual event on Saturday April 9. Chip and Liberty rescued mustangs from slaughter and featured below are from Wildhorse Ranch Rescue @ Rockin 7B Ranch and will become live canvases for local artist to paint. Following the Cave Creek Fiesta Days Parade they will be washed off for the artists to paint again. Additional "Artistic Horse" paintings and photographs by artist Alicia VanNoy and photographer Joanne West will be available at the galleries of the Wildhorse Ranch Rescue, Gilbert, and the Rockin 7B Gallery in North Phoenix. All proceeds benefit horses in need. WildHorse Ranch Rescue @ Rockin 7B Ranch is a Sister Ranch to Wildhorse Ranch Rescue Inc., a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to saving horses from abuse, neglect and slaughter. WHRR has locations in Arizona, Washington and Ohio. Every year approximately 60,000 U.S. horses are sent to their deaths at slaughterhouses around the country.
